

1. Design an online compiler in your web page (Bonus Exercise)

- 1) Get the code from user
- 2) code typed in the page is transferred to the server normally and saved in a tmp file.
- 3) code is given as input to a compiler installed on the server.
- 4) the program is executed and output is captured.
- 5) output is passed to web page as response.